a passion for truth is an intimate account of john huntington s interior life as a physical scientist and as a priest in mid career as a scientist he experienced a sudden and undeniable call to the priesthood it became imperative to work to reconcile his two vocations within a single worldview this plunged him into an intense reflection on the authority of physical science and the trustworthiness of religious experience he could not turn away from the question this book is the result the author uncovered a number of fallacies embedded in our western culture that serve to impede spiritual formation and to discourage the faithful at the root of them all is the idea that it is acceptable to be careless with the truth in liberal academic circles this is called postmodernism in theology it is called relativism in physical science it is called scientism he concluded that if striving for clear thinking is our loving response to our creator who endowed us with intellect then loose thinking permissive thinking untruth relativism could not be from god it cannot be condoned huntington wants to awaken in us a passion for truth and in doing so he wants to comfort us and bring us hope grounded in medical juridical and philosophical texts of sixteenth and seventeenth century france this innovative study tells the story of how the idea of woman contributed to the emergence of modern science rebecca wilkin focuses on the contradictory representations of women from roughly the middle of the sixteenth century to the middle of the seventeenth and depicts this period as one filled with epistemological anxiety and experimentation she shows how skeptics including montaigne marie de gournay and agrippa von nettesheim subverted gender hierarchies and or blurred gender difference as a means of questioning the human capacity to find truth while positivists who strove to establish new standards of truth for example johann weyer jean bodin and guillaume du vair excluded women from the search for truth the book constitutes a reevaluation of the legacy of cartesianism for women as wilkin argues that descartes opening of the search for truth even to women was part of his appropriation of skeptical arguments this book challenges scholars to revise deeply held notions regarding the place of women in the early modern search for truth their role in the development of rational thought and the way in which intellectuals of the period dealt with the emergence of an influential female public in an era shaped by misinformation conspiracy theories and anti science movements science and technology studies science technology and society sts provides a lighthouse of insight and interdisciplinary research this volume science technology and society for a post truth age comparative dialogues on reflexivity embarks on a transformative journey through the interdependencies of science technology and society offering vital perspectives and new insights on these challenging topics this book written by scholars in the field reshapes post truth discourse through sts and positions sts as a central force in addressing the post truth crisis it presents a compelling contribution that anchors sts at the heart of contemporary debates about truth and knowledge science technology and society for a post truth age comparative dialogues on reflexivity is a contemporary and thought provoking exploration of the evolving relationship between knowledge truth and society it makes the case that sts is a catalyst for reshaping our understanding of truth in an age characterised by scepticism and uncertainty this book offers a collection of papers on focal themes in truth research including minimalism pragmatism and pluralism and philosophical logic it further provides valuable hindsight with contemporary perspectives on the works of frege wittgenstein ramsey strawson and evans on truth and it features recent discussions on the role and value of truth in politics and political discourse the collection is based on groundbreaking presentations hosted by the virtual international consortium for truth research victr including talks given at the truth 20 20 conference the volume features exclusive transcriptions of panel discussions on truth and factuality with huw price douglas edwards cheryl misak and amie thomasson and on truth and polarization with michael lynch maria baghramian and cailin o connor it includes the transcript of a televised 1973 conversation between peter strawson and gareth evans and the volume features new contributions from established and early career researchers in the field anyone interested in the nature and value of truth will find this volume to be indispensable
